A Spurious Ad Rings White House Phones

(NYT 5/8/73)

WASHINGTON, May 7 (AP) —The White House switchboard lit up today with hundreds of incoming telephone calls responding to a classified ad in The Washington Post, apparently placed by a practical joker.

It said: "Administrative-staff positions avail. Call Dick," and listed the White House telephone number.

But President Nixon was in Florida.